TO OUR FRIENDS AND SISTERS
THE CLASS OF 1915.
WE LOYALLY DEDICATE
THIS OUR CLASS BOOK

Hail and Farewell

””

Unresistingly the Hudson flowed to meet the ebbing tide,
While the twilight, ling'ring fondly, cast its glow o'er Morningside;
Dewy-cool, our open campus caught the last rays of the sun,
And the Dial, proudly mournful, marked the hours, one by one.

Meanwhile, drifting slowly from us, unresisting, like the tide,
Nineteen Fifteen, our sisters, steered their courses from our side.
Midst our academic terrors, friendlier feelings were forgot,
And the choicest gift of College vanished, while we knew it not.

‘ ‘ ‘ ‘ ‘

In Barnard's halls the days are short, and laughter rings out free;
Nineteen Sixteen are Seniors now, and jolly Juniors, we.
Old Time's inexorable change o'ertakes the Red and Green;
Alone their friendship alters not:—Good luck to you, Fifteen.

The Launching

You come from all around, from far and near,
To see the launching of our gallant ship;
She's had a most precarious career:
Her builders have rotated at the grip;

At times she's seemed to us a heavy hulk,
Useful, perhaps, but not an ornament;
Her exchequer has never had much bulk,
The little we could get was quickly spent;

The high contracting parties have complained
That this was "puerile," or that "bad art."
But still the work went on, and we maintained
A sly and uncommunicative part.

And now you come with eager, hurrying feet,
To view her as she creaks upon the ways,
And we stand by with modesty discreet,
Fearful of censure or faint-hearted praise.

You seem to trust us so implicitly;
The lump of terror thickens in our throat.
She plunges down into publicity—
And we present the Barnard Motor Boat.

SOPHOMORE YEAR
Greek Games Lyric

The Old Gods Live Again

By KATHERINE HARROWER

I

They say the old gods died long years ago,
Even the seeds of Leto, gods of youth, and lie
Like rainbow dust of dreams that poets know,
In crannied nooks where winds blow gently by,
Oh, woods, with pungent earth-warm, scented breath!
Oh, winds, that whisper "Spring is here again!"
Sing sorrow! Make a dirge upon their death,
Oh, rustling leaves and rippling April rain!

A pale clear light of dawn slips through the trees;
The woods grow whisperous; a first lark sings;
Awakes a rain-kissed, dawn-cool breeze!
The fresh young shafts of reeds, dew-hung, up fling
Their new-blown flaming tufts of red and gold;
The lisping stream and greenwood shadows sing;
A fawn steps softly on the dark brown mould!

II

Then, up from the moss and the cover of sleep,
Up with the light of the dawn in her eyes,
Scaling the hill with her huntress' leap
Fleeter of foot than the fawn, she flies.
Glitter of limbs through the trees on the hill,
Crackle of twigs and the sway of the grass,
Birds soft-throated sigh and thrill;
Earth, awake, sees Artemis pass!

High on the brow of the hill she stands,
Dark and straight against the sky,
Hailing the dawn with outspread hands,
Clear from where sleep and shadows lie.
Then, in worship the wind falls still;
A waiting dawn-hush holds the earth;
Slowly the sun-flushed cloud-sails fill,
And bring the first spring day to birth.
The level rays of warm sun-gold
Upon two radiant figures pour,
And, in the hero light of old,
Phoebus and Artemis live once more!

Greek Games Lyric

By HILDEGARDE DIECHMANN

The day is wan, the singing winds lie low;
High on the peak the mountain ashes glow
Half fitfully, with sparks of burnished gold.
 The day is old, so old.
Hear me, oh Daphne, hear me as I sing,
 And when the woodland droops with sleep,
 Still thru your laurel whispering,
 Weep.

I am the god who heals,
Mine are the arts of the herb.
Mine is the power to bring
 Ease to man's suffering.
Hear me, oh Daphne, hear me as I sing!

I am the god of the muse,
Mine are the arts of the song.
From the swift winds and the seas
I steal strange melodies.
And the sweet talk of the birds
And the wild talk of the wolves
I weave in the verse of a god,
And to the lyre of a god they ring.
Hear me, oh Daphne, hear me as I sing!

I am the god of youth,
The god of passionate youth.
Strong are my limbs and pure,
Swift is my foot and sure.
Beauty lies deep in my eyes,
Like a star in the midnight skies.
Manly the youths who bring
 Gifts as an offering.
Hear me, oh Daphne, hear me as I sing!

Yet what avails my song?
And what avails my art?
I heal—but cannot heal my heart.
I sing—but cannot soothe my heart.

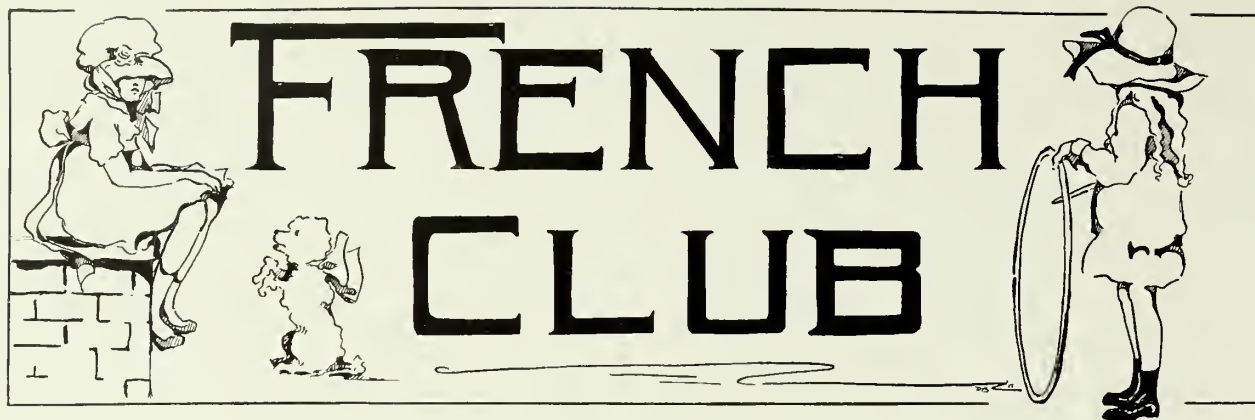

Ah me, how mad the day began
How madly sweet the pipes of Pan!
The wind blew free,
The green woods swayed in blowing ecstasy.
On yon sweet bank I dreamed and played
Upon a shepherd's lute and roughly made,
I dreamed and played
There came a sudden westward breeze,
Upon the farther bank the trees,
Lissome and graceful, bent and touched the brook,
I gazed with wid'ning joy, and there, discovered in her nook
Was Daphne, slim and startled like a fawn.
The softness of a growing dawn
Shown from her eyes and trembled there.
Ah, she was fair—so fair!
One moment's look of maiden fright
And then of scorn,
And then—the flight!
How free the wind blew
As we flew
Like birds, half skimming thru the green,
She fleeing, I, in mad pursuit.
Her hair streamed out behind
Like some gold comet, loosened by the wind.
Her garments caught the unkempt briar,
Caught and were loosened. But the fire
Of my hot breath was close upon her.
 Yet suddenly—
 Almost it seemed that she
 Was mine—was mine!
She raised her arms in quivering prayer,
Her foot stayed in its flight. The air
Was filled with leafy whispering.
Lo, swaying like a reed,
Fixed-rooted in the ground she stood,
A slender laurel of the wood.

Ah me, how mad the day began.
How madly sweet the pipes of Pan!
Would that I had the heart of man
And like a mortal evermore could sleep.
 The day is old, so old.
 Gone all of sunset's gold.
Hear me, oh Daphne, hear me as I sing,
 And thru your laurel whispering,
 Weep.

Silver Bay Club

THE SILVER BAY CLUB is an informal organization composed of all the girls in Barnard who have attended the Young Women's Christian Association Conferences at Silver Bay on Lake George.

The purpose in forming the club was not only to bring the Silver Bay girls together socially, but also to form a group who could effectively bring something of the conference back to the college.

Basket Ball

Barnard's 1914-15 basket-ball season was the most successful one that the College has seen in years. After losing the first two games the team came to and was undefeated during the remainder of the season. For the first time in at least four years, Teacher's College lost the championship series. Although she lost the first game by a score of 13—10, Barnard showed her real strength and won the next two games by the decisive scores of 15—3 and 12—7. The series with the Alumnae was also taken, the scores being 10—13, 24—4, and 30—8. The fast New Rochelle team was the loser in a very exciting game, receiving the small end of a 35—27 score. The Intercollegiate Alumnae were also submerged, and this victory, with the New Rochelle game, affords an opportunity for comparison with outside teams.

The success was due in no small part to the efficient coaching of Mr. Fischer and his unceasing emphasis on teamwork. He drilled the girls until their playing showed a finish and lack of friction which was unusual.

The work of "Midge" and "Honi" in the two forward positions was exceptionally good. It is almost unfair, however, to mention any one player more than another, for every member of the team was directly responsible for the victories and was an essential part of the machine. Rosemary Lawrence as right guard was classed as one of the best ever holding the position at Barnard.

The prospects for this season are unusually bright since four of the Varsity team are available, and there is also some very promising material among the subs and the Freshmen. The loss of M. Hillas and of J. Dixon will be felt severely nevertheless.

As a result of the inter-class matches, 1917 recaptured the College Championship and was undefeated during its Sophomore year. Second place was taken by 1916, who caused the champions no little anxiety in the final game. They fought desperately until the end, but were outplayed by the green and white team. 1918 had no one to dispute her right to third place, for 1915, as so often happens in the case of Senior teams, forfeited several of the games.

Hockey Season

1915-1916

Hockey started this year with exceptionally high promise, and the enthusiasm which characterized the playing, made this perhaps the most satisfactory season that the College has ever seen. Daily practise made for fast, enjoyable games and we are confident that the many hours spent in pursuing that elusive white ball were not wasted. The team work, however, in the inter-class games was not all that could have been desired. Thanks to the capable coaching of Miss McGlue, four class teams and the Varsity were whipped into splendid form.

The season opened with a series of games between Horace Mann and the Barnard Freshmen, in which the latter were forced to bow to an exceptionally good High School Varsity. Although the first game was an easy victory for the '19's, they were badly defeated in the second by a score of 4—2. The Freshmen fought well in the final game, but were unable to break through the strong defense of their opponents, and so lost the series by 4—1. The honors of the inter-class games are evenly divided between '16, '17, and '19, and the tie cannot be played off until the Spring.

The Varsity games were, indeed, something of which to be proud. With little practice, although with lots of fight and determination, our eleven met a carefully coached team of T. C. girls. The first game was a great surprise to both. Five times Barnard swept the ball down the field for a goal, and throughout the game very nearly all the playing was in T. C. territory. The passwork of our girls was splendid and everyone played "on her toes" every minute of the game. It was fast, clean hockey and an overwhelming victory for Barnard. In the second game T. C., as is her custom, rallied nobly, but, although she held us to a no-goal game, she herself was also unable to score. The third game, both teams were "out for blood" and each fought its hardest from start to finish. Both sides played splendid hockey, but Barnard shot three goals while T. C.'s score remained zero. And so the series ended with T. C. never having scored one point against our eleven. Who could ask for a better season than that? Congratulations, Varsity! And if we still have a field next year, may your record be as clean.

The Halogen Family

The Halogens a party gave,
And asked selected playmates in,
K and Hy (H_2 , you know)
And lively cousin Oxy Gen.

The hosts themselves were very gay,
Clo and Flo in shades of green,
Bro in a cute red satin suit,
And Io in blue velveteen.

The fun grew wild and wilder still,
Degenerated into slaughter;
Clo bleached her mother's switch and puffs,
And Oxy hopped a tub of water.

But active Flo soon had him out,
And did it pretty quickly, too,
Then, joining hands with squealing Hy,
She left him strangely changed, and blue.

Poor, bashful Io hid away
And wept all through the supper march,
Until with monster strategy
They tracked her down by means of starch.

When K essayed to comfort her,
The jealous Clo cried "That's enough!"
And took her place within his arms,
"She's only trying to show off."

Then K, disgusted, looked up Bro;
They made a powerful combination,
Fooling with photographic plates,
And drugs, and other machination.

Just as things were calming down,
Who should appear but Auntie Plat;
They loved her glad, infectious speed,
But called her jokingly "Old Cat."

She livened up the fun a bit,
And settled quarreling and faction;
And to her credit be it said,
Heightened the speed of every action.

In Other Words

KNOCKS:

“Each little fault of temper and each social defect
“In my erring fellow-creatures I’ll endeavor to correct.
“To all their little weaknesses I open people’s eyes,
“And little plans to snub the self-sufficient I devise.”

THE LUNCHROOM:

“Union is strength, I’m bound to say;
“In fact, the thing’s as clear as day;
“But onions — are a weakness.”

F:

“Thou unnecessary letter.”

BRIEFS:

“Commencing every single phrase
“With ‘therefore’ or ‘because,’
“I blindly reeled, a hundred ways,
“About the syllogistic maze,
“Unconscious where I was.”

MIDYEARS:

“This shows you are above, you justicers.”

ZOOLOGY:

“Old Evolution’s under way,
“What Ho! the world’s all right, I say.”

ANTHROPOLOGY:

“Remember, in creation’s swing
“The race and not the man’s the thing.”

DEBATING CLUB:

“But — when you call it ARGUMENT —
“Of course you’re only joking?”

1919:

“Ye are green wood, see ye warp not.”

MATHEMATICS:

"I strove to prove the matter true
"By putting everything I knew
"Into an axiom."

THE HONOR SYSTEM:

"A wise and salutary neglect."

COLLEGE TEA:

"Have you anything to drink
"That looks a little less like ink,
"And isn't quite so sour?"

THE HAT-LAW:

"That statute is obsolete quite."

PHILOSOPHY:

"The abstract qualities begin
"With capitals alway:
"The True, the Good, the Beautiful —
"Those are the things that pay."

THE STUDENT BODY:

"They augur misgovernment at a distance, and snuff the approach of tyranny in every tainted breeze."

OUR PICTURES:

"The worst and ugliest picture
"We could possibly have dreamed of,
"Giving one such strange expressions —
"Sullen, stupid, pert expressions.
"Really anyone would take us
"(Anyone who did not know us)
"For the most unpleasant people."

1919—Original Battle Song

With a courage born of strength
And the will to do and dare,
Be it test of skill or might,
Barnard's team is always there.
 Ray, ray, ray!
Cheer till the sound wakes the echoes around,
Fills the players with burning zeal;
They'll win out if they may, they'll be game anyway
And that's how we want them to feel.
With might and main we cheer every gain
For the college on Morningside Height,
And our loyalty's true, as we all sing to you,
Barnard—and the Blue and White.

1918—Original Battle Song

Come, now, for dear old Barnard's Blue and White!
Rouse all the pep you have and Fight! Fight! Fight!
Go in and play the game with all your might,
While we are cheering for our Team! Team! Team!

You know that all of Barnard's backing you,
You know that all of Barnard's hoping, too,
That you will beat those Teachers.
Get the ball! Make a goal! Rah! Rah! Rah!

Oh, Fight! Fight! Fight! for B-A-R-N-A-R-D!
We have the best team that ever you did see!
One more stand and we shall have a victory
For B! A! R! N! A! R! D!

1919—Original Cheer

Growl, bear, growl!
Howl, bear, howl!
R A H, Barnard, fight!
Fight, Blue and White!
R A H, Barnard!

Botany

Did you know that in Botany lab
There was always an awful confab
As to why had the daisy
Construction so hazy
And for what was that queer yellow dab?

But the question was settled somehow;
There's an end to Botanical row;
And "He loves me, he doesn't,"
"He was true" or "He wasn't"
Is the story the daisy tells now.

Socialism

Have you been to the Socialist class?
It's the best course in Barnard, they claim,
No work—and four points for the same.
The girls sit and jabber as fast as they're able,
While Simkovitch talks to himself and the table.

Sometimes there's excitement
Which spreads like a flame:
"There's a girl taking notes,"
"Great Scott! what's her name?"
But those sitting nearest look over and see
She is making up work in Zoology 3.

And Simkovitch talks on.

* * * * *

One time little Bee took her courage in hand,
Asked him please to talk so she might understand;
He said he'd be only too glad to speak out
If he only knew what he was speaking about.
Yet those who sit near him and catch even half
Of his cynical speeches, get many a laugh.
Three times in his lecture he pauses each day:—
(A) Till the rattling shade has been fastened some way,
(B) When the clock's buzzing tells us it's ten-twenty-eight,
(C) And when Eleanor Parker comes trooping in late.

HOCKEY

It was such a sleepy hour,
Baby French from two to three;
So she sat and dreamed of hockey,
Hockey as it ought to be.
She could see the field before her,
All of Barnard cheering there:
Alla-le-gay!
Alla-le-gay!
Barnard! Barnard! Ray, Ray, Ray!

T. C. was the hated rival,
And the score was nothing all,
And the game was nearly over—
With a bang she stopped that ball.
What a shout went down the side-lines
As they cheered and urged her on!
Rah, Rah, Ray!
Rah, Rah, Ray!
Barnard! Barnard! Run! Run! Run!

Run she did, the ball before her,
Foiled their guards with clever play,
Crashed that ball between the goal-posts,
Made the score that won the day!
All the college pressed around her.
Shook her hand and cheered her loud:
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Ray! Ray! Ray!
We've won! We've won! Rah, Rah, Ray!

Suddenly her dream was blighted;
Gone were cheers and crowd as well;
In their place a prof's voice saying:
"Future, please, Mademoiselle."
"Er—I can't," she slowly stammered.
But the rest all shouted out:
Donnerai!
Donnerai!
ras ra rons rez ront
Rah!

For Mariners

She was plunging up to college
In a smashing, three-reef gale.
The south-wind drove her onward.
She bowled along, full sail.
(One cannot reef a hat, you know,
As one would reef a sail.)

At 115th street
She started in to yaw;
Her hat began to struggle,
To creak and groan and saw.
She looked around in anguish;
Her eyes were wide with awe.

At 116th street
She jibed with frightful force;
She veered about from east to west
And wallowed in her course.
Her shrieking hat was torn away
And tramped on by a horse.

It sang the "Up-the-Street-March,"
And shook with taunting laughter;
She panted on in hot pursuit—
She couldn't have looked dafter—
With beggars and Columbia men
All catapulting after.

They might have saved themselves the pain;
It gave a final shiver
At 119th street
And started for the river.
She fled the mob with blushing face
And every nerve aquiver.

Once we could have had some fun,
Before the rule fell flat,
By sending out a delegate
With testimonies pat
To mulet the disobedient
For being minus hat.

Undergraduate Committee on Vocations

ALINE POLLITZER - - - - - Chairman

Elizabeth Hall
Susie Hoch

Carol Weiss
Carol Lorenz (ex-officio)

The purpose of this committee is to interest the undergraduates in vocations open to women and to keep constantly before them the problem of what they are to do after they leave college.

Hebraic Culture Committee

ELINOR SACHS - - - - - Chairman

Selma Cohen
Edith Grossman

Susie Hoch
Elizabeth Wright

The purpose of this committee is to promote a better understanding of Jewish history, literature, art, customs, philosophy—in short, to interest the undergraduates in Jewish culture.

Animadversions

In Logic

Mrs. Sait: "‘Some students get A in everything.’
Transpose that sentence, please."

Puzzled Student: "Those who get A in everything are some students."

In German 27, 28

Student: "If blue is the color of infinity and happiness, where does the expression ‘I’ve got the blues’ come from?"

Dr. Porterfield: "I don’t know, really; I haven’t had the blues for some time."

In Zoology Lab

"‘All the perfumes of Arabia will not sweeten this little hand.’"

In Class Meeting

Dot Curnow: "Nominations are in order to fill Katharine Wainwright’s vacancy."

In Zoology Lab

Student: "What’s the matter with my lobster? I can’t find any of his parts. Is he a little too young?"

Assistant (sniffing): "I think he’s a little too old."

Cave Fontem

Many a youth of noble mien
Has gone to his sarcophagus
Through drinking water, icy cold,
A-down his hot æsophagus.

We love our Dr. Crampton and devotedly insist
That everything he says to us is true;
’Tis therefore with conviction that we stubbornly persist
He does nothing an amoeba couldn’t do.

The Greek Department to the Chairman

You have the Greek Games dance as yet;
Where is the Greek translation gone?
Of two such lessons why forget
The nobler and the manlier one?
You have the pony used in class;
Think you they meant it for an ass?

The Grind

My heart leaps up when I behold
An A I thought to funk;
So was it when I bluffed of yore,
So is it now I bluff some more,
So be it when I shall grow old,
Or let me flunk.
The end seems farther than before,
And I could wish my A’s to be Joined each to each by a small Kappa key.

The Bull-Dog

You giggling, leering, chuckling thing,
With lolling tongue and double check,
The mascots hail you as their king;
The college trembles when you speak.

Zoology 2

It’s a long way from amphioxus, it’s a long way to us;
It’s a long way from amphioxus to the meanest human euss.

Good-bye, little gill-slits,
Welcome, feathers and hair;
It’s a long, long way from amphioxus, but we came from there.

(By presumption of the editors.)

Bee has a hop
Just like a cop.
For shame, Bee—
"Remember that you represent Barnard on every occasion."

To Nineteen-Sixteen

(Villanelle)

Of all the classes we repeat
In Mortarboard, so fair to view,
'Sixteen alone we name as sweet.

Our sister-class, as it is meet,
We love and cherish most, 'tis true,
Of all the classes we repeat.

And though, when we do turn to greet
Our Seniors, we can think of you,
'Sixteen, alone, we name as sweet

'Nineteen as well, and cannot cheat
Ourselves of laurels that are due,
Of all the classes we repeat

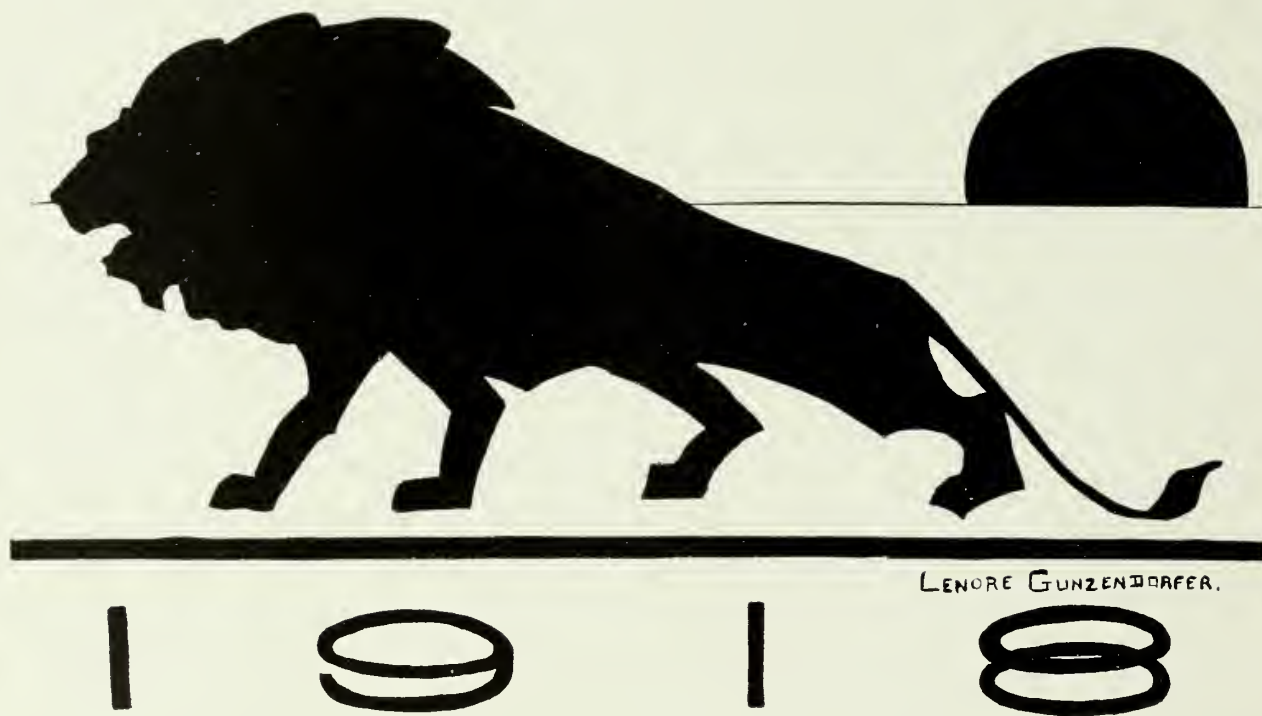

Accept the rhyme, pray, for the feat;
A villanelle's so hard to do.
Of all the classes, we repeat,
'Sixteen alone we name as sweet.

Katabolism of a Mortarboard Meeting

Eleven little editors sitting in the Pen,
Dot goes to class meeting and then there are ten;
Ten little editors talking very fine,
Mo asks to be exeused and then there are nine;
Nine little editors think it's getting late,
'Nita has a chem. quiz and so there are eight;
Eight little editors on their way to Heaven,
D. Leet hasn't lunched yet and so there are seven;
Seven little editors everything will fix,
Strussy sort of fades away and then there are six;
Six little editors very much alive,
Florence has to telephone and then there are five;
Five little editors reading knoecks galore,
Dorothy pleads ignorance and then there are four;
Four little editors busy as ean be,
Gladys looks at Cora's watch and then there are three;
Three little editors haven't much to do,
Cora thinks she'd better go and then there are two;
Two little editors can't have so much fun,
Lucy goes in search of art and then there is one;
One little editor lonely as the sun,
The bell summons her to class and then there are none.

I had a little Freshman who was independent, quite.
She always knew just what to do and always did it right.
She used to make me feel that I was frivolous and queer,
Till she set about her research theme without the slightest fear.

She passed the entrance at Earl Hall, not knowing it was there,
Went round the block and labored up the one-sixteenth street stair;
Then entered where the Zodiac signs upon the floor gleam bright,
And, never hesitating, took the door upon the right.

Around and round and ever round, with scowl unpicturesque,
She puffed thro' banging doors until she reached the reference desk;
Got down her books and turned to go—the clerk called with a sneer:
“R means that they are reference and can only be used here.”

From out the cards not marked with R's she found her list complete,
Then noticed with dismay she had forgotten her receipt.
Back thro' interminable doors, like Dame Calamity,
Black-browed, she reached the entrance hall, and caught a glimpse of me.

I have a little Freshman who is very, very meek;
She asks if she may eat with me about five times a week;
She makes me feel as if I were a Goddess, fair and strong,
But we never talk of research themes, or how they get along.

HISTORY

Wouldst thou hear what man can say
In a little? Reader, stay.
In this college is a class—
Virtues? Well, we'll let them pass.
Conquests? You're advised to look
In our study, in this book,
In the hearts of everyone,
For the great things we have done.
Now we're trying to lay low
Rumored braggadocio.

Limericks

There was a professor named Muzz(ss)ey,
One never could tell which one wuz-zy;
 'Twixt the z and the s
 There's a gulf of distress;
And neither knows which he is, duz-zy?

There was a young lady named Boyd,
By "lost goods" of students annoyed,
 Till quite in a pickle,
 She charged them a nickel,
And then she the task quite enjoyed.

There's a terrible despot named Brewster,
Whose specialty is to refuse ter
 Check any programs,
 And after exams—
You may finish it off if you choose ter.

If you've e'er met a lady named Hirst,
You will know that it's quite the worst Mistake you can make—
 Indeed, a bad break—
If you haven't drunk tea from the first.

Dr. Braun, a professor of German,
To his students delivers no sermon;
 Instead, with a smile,
 He makes it worth while,
And that is the best way to "learn 'em."

We know a professor named Knapp,
Who loves to get into a serap;
 His attitude mental
 So very tangental,
May land him some day off the map.

A certain professor of stars
Keeps his classes in constant Ha-Ha's;
 On a dark cloudy night
 His wit's the bright light
Whereby we see Venus and Mars.

In Woodbridge's class, so to speak,
"Philosophical leisure" we seek;
 Endless books waded through,
 Essay written, quiz too,
And our labor is done—for a week.

TO THE DEAN:

"Heard melodies are sweet,
 "But those unheard are sweeter";
And we are too discreet
 To put our praise in metre.

RUTH ADAMS
 "Silence never betrays you."

GERTRUDE ADELSTEIN
 "Work first and then rest."

EDITH ARCHER
 "I did not care one straw."

CAROL ARKINS
 "I've played the deuce with men."

DOROTHY BAUER
 "Oho!" the captain said. "I see!
 "And is she then so very strong?"
 "She'd take your Honor's scruff," said he,
 "And pitch you over to Bolong."

HELENE BAUSCH
 "Not that the story need be long, but it will take a long while to make it short."

*Girls whose names are starred will probably get their degrees in February, 1918.

ELSA BECKER

"A simple child
That lightly draws its breath."

RHODA BENHAM

"She had done up her hair in the style that the Empress had brought into fashion."

RUTH BENJAMIN

"She stands up for her principles,
"She's not what you'd call fickle-ish,
"And though she doesn't giggle much
"She's very poli-tickle-ish."

SARAH BENNETT

"Vir sapit qui pauca loquitur."

PAULA BERNHOLZ

"In glowing health."

GRACE BONNELL

"She glides thru the hall."

ELEANOR BREMER

"One foot in sea and one on shore."

LENA BRODSKY

"People make a plaguey fuss
"About all things that don't concern 'em."

DOROTHY BRYAN

"Fine art is that in which the hand, the head, and the heart go together."

ADELAIDE BUNKER

"So I told them in rhyme,
"For of rhymes I had store."

LUCIE BURGI

"Freedom has a thousand charms."

ALICE BURNS

"I cannot heave my heart into my mouth."

BEATRICE BURROWS
 "By far the busiest of them all."

EDITH CAHEN
 "I chatter, chatter as I go."

EVELYN CAHEN
 "Dinner is Dinner;
 "Tea is Tea."

HELEN CALLAN
 "O Cuckoo! shall I call thee bird
 "Or but a wandering voice?"

MARIE CHABAUD
 "And did it want a wedding-ring?
 "It was a tempting ickle sing."

HELEN COLLINS
 "How doth the busy bumblebee improve each shining hour."

MINNIE COOK

"She argued high, she argued low,
"She argued all around about her."

ANNETTE CURNEN

"I blush to say I've winked at him and he has winked at me."

DOROTHY CURNOW

"Let's lack no discipline, make no delay."

EVELYN DAVIS

"Enthusiasm begets enthusiasm."

GERTRUDE DEARDEN

"With a smile that was childlike and bland."

CATHERINE DERIVAN

"That may be, but in Yonkers——."

BABETTE DEUTSCH

"Thy wit is a very bitter sweetening;
it is a most sharp sauce."

GRACE DIERCKS

"You may as well forbid the sea for to obey the moon as, or by oath remove, or counsel shake the fabric of his folly whose foundation is piled upon his faith."

*JUNE DIXON

"Nothing can be won without anxiety and care."

OLIVE DUNN

"Quiet as a nun."

MARY DWYER

"I look at all things as they are, but through a kind of glory."

RUTH EDMONDSON

"Speech half asleep, or song half awake."

ROSE ELLIS

"The only way to get rid of a temptation is to yield to it."

KATHLEEN FISHER

"It's your pretty Irish way."

ANITA FRENZEL

"Of such a nature as to be able to do and attain whatever conduces to any given purpose."

CORNELIA THROOP GEER

"Her words, like so many nimble and airy servitors, trip about her at command."

ELIZABETH GILBERT

"Her smile was undisturbed and sweet."

JULIA GOTTLIEB

"She's sudden, if a thing comes in her head."

ETHEL GRAY
 "Gentle of speech."

ROSE GRAY
 "A little rosebud set with thorns."

LENORE GUNZENDORFER
 "Deutschland über alles."

IRMA HAHN
 "A quick brunette, well moulded, Falcon-eyed."

AGNES HALL
 "A maiden of our century, yet most meek."

MARJORIE HALLETT
 "Whose nature is so far from doing harm that she suspects none."

KATHERINE HARROWER

"She plays the airy flute,
"And looks depressed and blighted."

PAULINE HATTORFF

"Gather ye rosebuds while ye may."

EUGENIE HAUSLE

"Whose thoughts are full of indices and surds."

MARION HAYDEN

"There was a little man and he had a little soul,
"And he said, 'Little Soul, let us try, try, try!'"

MEME HEACOCK

"I wish I could take your advice
"But I like my own way,
"And I find it so nice."

SYLVIA HECHT

"Stature, Junoesque;
Style of dancing, Greek;
Favorite study, Latin;
She's a very modern freak."

ANNA HERMANN

"She snaps you playing tennis,
"She snaps you taking naps,
"She snaps you in the street-car,
"But herself she never snaps."

MILDRED HEYMEN

"An open hearted maiden."

THERESE HIEBEL

"Chi va piano, va sano."

SOPHIE HILDENBRAND

"Be checked for silence,
"But never taxed for speech."

SUSIE HOCH

"The world is but a thought," said she,
"The vast unfathomable sea
"Is but a —— Notion unto me."

HELEN HOLBROOK

"There are also people who have a trick of abiding by their own opinions who are commonly called Positive."

ANNA JABLONOWER

"And still the wonder grew
"That one small head could carry all she knew."

MARION JACKSON

"Travellers must be content."

RUTH JENNINGS

"It would be an argument for a week."

RUTH JENSEN

"Aye, Sir, I have a pretty wit."

BALBINA JOHNSON

"I'm sorry that I spelled the word,
"I hate to go above you."

KATHERINE KAHN

"My lord, I hope you are pepper-proof."

HELEN KAHRS

"Fair-haired, and redder than a windy morn."

RUTH KANNOFSKY

"Forget in no wise to speak of her fine raiment."

LUCY KARR

"Of more wit than stature."

GLADYS KENNARD

"Moralize as we will, the world goes on."

HELENA KENT

"Good at meal-time, good at play,
"Good all night, and good all day."

HELEN KETCHAM

"Observe moderation. In all the fitting is best."

MARION KIDD

"All are architects of Fate
"Working in these walls of time."

IDA KLAUSNER

"Br'er Fox, he lay low."

AGNES KLOSS

"Wisdom is not woman's greatest charm."

MARIE KOCH

"Then came the student with a look
"As placid as a meadow brook."

FRANCES KRASNOW

"One that is your friend."

GERALDINE KRAUSE

"I ought to have my own way in everything, and what's more, I will, too."

MARION LA FOUNTAIN

"When the sands are all dry, she is gay as a lark,
"And will talk in contemptuous tones
of the shark;
"But, when the tide rises and sharks are around,
"Her voice has a timid and tremulous sound."

ROSEMARY LAWRENCE

"Do your best, whether winning or losing it."

MINNA LEDERMAN

"For I do this sort of thing particularly neatly."

DOROTHY LEET

"Fire that's closest kept, burns most of all."

HELEN LEET

"It's wiser being good than bad,
"It's safer being meek than fierce,
"It's fitter being sane than mad."

MARGARET LENNON

"Like all good women, has a temper of her own."

THERESA LEVY

"Why should not then we women act alone?
"Or whence are men so necessary grown?"

SADIE LEWIN

"Of manners gentle, of affections mild."

ESTHER LEWIS

"Joy rises in me, like a summer's morn."

MARIETTA LOTT

"Standing with reluctant feet
"Where the brook and river meet."

BEATRICE LOWNDES

"You have that in your countenance which I would fain call master."
"What's that?" "Authority."

ALICE LUCKINGS

"Full of sweet indifference."

DOROTHY LYDECKER
 "Bold, quick, ingenious, forward."

MARGARET MACKEY
 "A little fistfull of a woman."

ELIZABETH MAN
 "One who was famed for the number of things she forgot."

ELIZA MARQUESS
 "Who can sing and won't sing."

CHARLOTTE MARTENS
 "I never knew so young a body with so old a head."

HELEN MAYHEW
 "Happy am I, from care I'm free.
 "Why aren't they all contented like me?"

LENORE MAYER

"True, she errs, but in her own, grand way."

GRACE MERRITT

"You love your friends, my dear, we know,
"But you're keenly alive to their faults,
"And because you are such a 'husky old thing'
"We're helpless before your assaults."

IRMA MEYER

"Mother would know."

MIRIAM MILLER

"Take comfort, nor forget
"That sunrise never failed as yet."

MAUDE MINAHAN

"Pretty enough, very pretty."

CORA HENNER MORRIS

"I strove with none."

MARGARET MOSES

"And still a very skeptic at the soul."

ELLA MUNTER

"The name in German means happy and gay,
"One talk with the girl drives dull care away."

CLARA NEUBAUER

"If you are not a man of taste how can you ever hope to be of use in the world?"

DOROTHEA NOICE

"In this world we must not expect everything."

ELSIE OAKLEY

"Write me as one who loves his fellowmen."

FLORENCE OPPENHEIMER

"Call me what instrument you will, though you can fret me, yet you cannot play upon me."

SARAH ORIGGI

"True she is, as she has proved herself."

GLADYS PALMER

"Hungry rooster don't cackle w'en he fin' a wunt."

ELLEN PAPAIZIAN

"Minnehaha, Laughing Water."

ELEANOR PARKER

"Wilt thou aspire to guide the heavenly car
"And with thy daring folly burn the world?"

CLAIRE PATTERSON

"She was always a desperate wag."

META PENNOCK

"What men have done can still be done,
"And shall be done to-day."

GRACE PICHEL

"Tho' pleased to see the dolphins play,
"I mind my compass and my way."

ALINE POLLITZER

"Who are you that you should fret and rage and bite the chains of nature?"

*GRACE POTTER

"Old heads upon young shoulders we must not expect to find."

EDNA PRITCHARD

"Small people are neat and well made."

ANNET PRITCHARDT

"As good be out of the world as out of fashion."

KATHARINE QUACKENBOS

"By her face straight shall you know her heart."

HILDA RAU

"Cause I's wicked, I is."

ADA REID

"A dillar, a dollar, a ten o'clock scholar,
"What makes you come so soon?
"You used to come at ten o'clock,
"But now you come at noon."

CORA REQUA

"Endure with patience the distasteful fun for just a little while."

*CHRISTINE ROBB

"Never laughed a maid more often,
"Never sparkled eyes more brown."

BUNNY ROGERS

"If of herself she will not love,
"Nothing can make her."

ALMA RUHL

"She never flunked and she never lied;
"I reckon she never knowed how."

ELINOR SACHS

"To love, to wealth, to pomp I pine and die
"With all those living in philosophy."

EVELYN SALZMAN

"Nothing to breathe but air—
"Quick as a flash 'tis gone.
"Nowhere to fall but off,
"Nowhere to stand but on."

AGNES SAUL

"Pity it is to slay the meanest thing."

LILLIAN SCHAEFFER

"The harder you work, the happier you are."

LILY SCHLANG

"Let the world slide, let the world go,
"A fig for care; a fig for woe."

AMANDA SCHULTE

"Tickle and entertain us or we die."

HARRIET SCOTT

"She is gentil that does gentil dedis."

FANNY SIEGEL

"If Fanny says 'Yes,' but you think
'No,'
"If you know her at all, you won't say so."

FRANCES SIEGEL

"No fault had she—no fad except
"A tendency to strum."

MIRIAM SIFF

"Frank to a fault."

WILMA SOURS

"It is difficult to offer aid to an independent man."

JANE STAPLES

"Why should life all labor be?"

MARION STEVENS

"Much it grieves my heart to think
"What man has made of man."

MIRIAM STEIN

"Sense and Sensibility."

DOROTHY STERN

"Be mine a philosopher's life in the quiet woodland ways."

GEORGINA STICKLAND

"There's many a black, black eye, they say,
"But none so bright as mine."

MARION STRAUCH

"She's very neat and quite petite,"
"Her manner, too, is quite discreet."

SOLVEIG STROMSOE

"Shy she was, and I thought her cold."

MARION STRUSS

"I myself must mix with action."

AGNES SURGEONER

"Child of the pure unclouded brow
"And dreaming eyes of wonder."

MARY TALMAGE

"O sleep, it is a gentle thing,
"Beloved from pole to pole."

LUCILLE TAYLOR

"Give me an excellent musician and her hair shall be of what color it please Heaven."

DOROTHY TEALL

"And a feeling of sadness comes o'er me
"That my soul cannot resist."

VIOLA TEEPE

"Talking is still done by hand."

MURIEL TERRY

"So innocent-arch, so cunning-simple."

ALTA VAN AUKEN

"No, I love not what is new."

ELEANOR VAN ETTEN

"Her nose;
"Tip-tilted like the petals of a flower."

EDITH VAN WAGNER

" 'Tis death to me to be at enmity."

*KATHARINE WAINWRIGHT

"The heaving of my lungs provokes me to ridiculous smiling."

BEATRICE WALKER

"Love is enough, tho' the world is a-waning."

FLORENCE WEINSTEIN

"Her sage remarks startle and mystify
We often wonder what they specify."

RUTH WHEELER

"Straight and lissome as a hazel-wand."

ELEANOR WILKINS

"Campbell Kid or Kewpie."

ISABEL WILLIAMS

"I'm the apostle of Mighty Darwinity."

OLIVE WILLIAMS

"The undaunted virtue of your years
"Hath not yet dived into the world's deceit."

LILLIAN WILSON

"It behooves a prudent person to make trial of everything before arms."

FRIDA WOBBER

"There was no hurry in her hands, no hurry in her feet."

ELSA WOITITZ

"Veni, vidi, Vici."
—Cæsar and Elsa.

WILSON VENETIANS

Specially designed for inside and outside of Town and Country Houses.

The Wilson Awning Blind can be fitted to any window. It is easily operated from the inside of house and provides the maximum amount of Summer Home Comfort and Coolness. They are very artistic, durable and distinctive.

Wilson Venetians for Piazzas and Porches initiate one into the delights and benefits of Sleeping Outdoors, while retaining all the comfort and privacy of indoors. They enable you to have a wide-open piazza or sun-parlor by day, and a delightful private sleeping porch by night.

Dr. Wiley says: A Sleeping Porch costs little, and its return is in better health and longer life.

Mention "1917 Mortarboard" for New Venetian Catalogue.

The J. G. Wilson Corporation, 8 West 40th St., New York
Established 1876.

Something for every building Inside and Outside Venetians, Rolling Partitions, Rolling Steel Shutters, Burglar and Fireproof Steel Curtains.

MALLINSON'S

Silks de Luxe

comprise the first choice of the Mallinson Production and are equally noteworthy for artistic achievement and fashionable inspiration.

“PUSSY WILLOW,” the most exquisite silk of the day, in a wonderful range of colors and designs. “INDESTRUCTIBLE VOILE,” and “WILL O’ THE WISP,” the daintiest and most durable sheer silks made, and “KHAKI KOOL,” the most popular sport silk of the season—these and more belong to the Mallinson collection.

See that you get the genuine! Look for identification marks on the package or selvage of the silk, or on the label in the garment.

☞ You'll have time to spare

instead of being crowded to the last minute if you abandon the antiquated method of writing your letters, surveys, reports, estimates, etc., by hand, and use a 5-lb. Blickensderfer Portable Typewriter instead.

With lightning speed your finger tips will jump over the keyboard, and a neat, perfectly legible writing will result in about one-half the time formerly required.

Then, too, by slipping in a carbon you can make a copy of all you write for your personal files.

The price wouldn't stop you for a minute. May we send Bulletin No. A-140? Write.

Miller School

Business and Shorthand Courses

Endorsed by the Board of Regents

Twenty-two years of continuous effort enables us to quickly and intelligently study the student and to fit the proper instruction.

Business Men

Need the office services of bright, well-informed young women more than ever. Practically every business is running at full capacity and help of the right sort is hard to find.

Our Employment Department

Is the best evidence of this fact. We have not been able to fill half of the positions that have come to us since January first last.

The Leading Business Houses

Believe in the thoroughness of the Miller School for we have a large following of such houses who engage our bookkeepers, stenographers, secretaries, typists, etc. The courses include all business subjects, Gregg shorthand and English.

Cook or No Cook, Anybody can Do That.

Although the Kewpie Cook,

"Whose apron hangs before his legs,
Is most expert with ham and eggs."

he can make a Jell-O dessert as beautifully as if he had never done anything else.
Wag the Chief or the Carpenter could do it alone. For doesn't have to be cooked. All that is necessary is a package of Jell-O, a pint of boiling water, and somebody to put them together.

And nothing else that is so delicious can be bought for anything like the Jell-O price—ten cents. While nearly everything has gone up in price the cost of the big Jell-O dessert is as low as ever.

Put up in seven pure fruit flavors: Raspberry, Strawberry, Lemon, Orange, Cherry, Peach, Chocolate, each 10 cents at grocers'.

A tightly sealed waxed paper bag, proof against moisture and air, encloses the Jell-O in each package.

A beautiful new Jell-O Book telling of a young bride's housekeeping experiences has just been issued. It has splendid pictures in colors and will interest every woman. It will be sent to you free if you will send us your name and address.
